preparatory to retirement from service [redacted] after verification of dates of births of these officers. They were not permitted to retire from service before they attain the age of superannuation. Strictly speaking they were already over-aged even at the time of their retirement. Therefore they have not been permitted to retire from service before the date of superannuation.

4) Draft reply is put up for approval as they appear:—

(a) (i) 1950 — Three officers granted leave before the date of superannuation.

(ii) 1951 — One officer granted leave in the interests of public service.

No officer was retired before attaining the age of Superannuation.

(b) D.C. Tumkur; Supdt L.R. and Surveys; Asst. Commr [redacted] in charge of State Hygiene Trg, and Labour Commr — respectively.

(c) The three officers noted in (a)(i) retired on the dates of their superannuation and the officer noted in (a)(ii) has been granted leave in the interests of public service.

Does not arise in view of reply to (a) &

17) The question relates to the retirement of muslim officers before they attain the age of superannuation. Jamab Nazir Ahmad Meccai was permitted to retire after the date of superannuation as he attained the age of superannuation on 1.8.1946 according to the date of his birth entered in college records. Therefore his name was not taken into consideration.

18) Submitted with reference to para 16 ante.

19) The draft reply gives only the number of Officers granted leave, and Jamab Nazir Ahmed Meccai is not one of them.

20) The position taken is that according to Govt. no Officer has been retired prematurely, that is, before he attains the age of Superannuation, but in the order actually issued, no reasons have been specified and no ruling has been given regarding the true date of birth.
